

The Hendricks County Election Board is requesting proposals for consideration to be selected as the legal counsel for the board and election office.

This would entail being available to provide advice concerning policies and actions taken by the Board and/or Election Office. Included as part of those duties would be attending Election Board meetings as requested. Requirements would include knowledge of the Indiana Election codes, federal election laws and the Indiana election process. Proposals will need to include fees charged for those services.

Please direct proposals to the Hendricks County Election Board NO later than March 1, 2025. Proposals may be submitted by email at elections@co.hendricks.in.us, mailed to 355 S Washington Street Ste 120 Danville In 46122 or hand delivered to the Voter Registration Office.