HCHP Local Coalition Updates

In 2019, the structure of the Partnership shifted and reduced its number of coalitions to two. Since then, the Mental Health & Wellness Coalition and the Substance Abuse Task Force have been working to improve behavioral health needs in the county through a number of projects and events.

The Mental Health & Wellness Coalition was put under the leadership of the executive director of Mental Health of America of Hendricks County. Work in the coalition is centered around Mental Health Awareness Month, Suicide Prevention Awareness Month, and crisis response efforts.

The Substance Abuse Task Force has continued to assist the community through providing community grants that target substance use prevention.

- Mental Health & Wellness Coalition

- Hosted first annual Mental Health Fair and 5K, “Walking for the Health of it”.
- Hosted Crisis Response Team trainings.
- Crisis Response Team was officially called out to respond to crises.
- Hosted annual Crisis Intervention Training for law enforcement officers.
- Hosted annual Suicide Prevention & Awareness Candlelight Vigil.

- Substance Abuse Task Force

- Distributed $82,670 of grants to help promote local substance use prevention efforts.
- Supported and promoted substance use and mental health efforts, events, grants, and programs.
