TURN OVER FOR ADDITIONAL RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS

Plaintiff and Defendant(s) (Plaintiff, please initial):

- _____ 1. You may represent yourself in this Court. All corporate entities may appear by a designated full-time employee if the claim is for less than $6,000 and a Resolution form has been filed. All corporate entities MUST be represented by an attorney on all claims exceeding $6,000. Any party may appear by an attorney.
- _____ 2. Any party represented by a designated employee who fails to comply with these rules or local rules of court may be ordered by the court to appear by counsel and subject to sanctions, including the assessment of costs or reasonable attorney's fees, the entry of a default judgment, and the dismissal of a claim with or without prejudice. Anyone who engages in conduct that is uncivil or disruptive to the proceeding may be found in contempt of court, which is punishable by a fine, incarceration, or both.
- _____ 3. Your bench trial is allotted 5 minutes. Upon evidence of service of the notice of claim upon Defendant, either party may request additional time by filing a written request with the court at least 2 business days in advance of trial.
- _____ 4. You may be granted a continuance for good cause shown. Except in unusual circumstances neither party shall be allowed more than 1 continuance, and all continuances must have the specific approval of the Court.
- _____ 5. You should bring to the trial all documents in your possession concerning the claim. If you intend to introduce the documents into evidence, you should bring extra copies.
- _____ 6. Clerk and court employees may answer questions about scheduling and basic procedure but are not allowed to give parties legal advice.
- _____ 7. You may check the status of your case, including your hearing dates, at <https://mycase.in.gov>

Defendant(s):

- 1. If you fail to appear in Court on the date and time set for bench trial, Plaintiff may receive a judgment against you in the amounts requested on the Notice of Claim. This is a default judgment.
- 2. If you do not wish to dispute the claim, you may nonetheless appear for purpose of allowing the Court to establish the method by which the judgment shall be paid.
- 3. If you have a counterclaim arising from the same transaction or occurrence which is the subject of Plaintiff's claim, you may file a counterclaim within such a time that will allow the Court to serve a copy of the counterclaim on Plaintiff at least 7 calendar days prior to trial. By pursuing a counterclaim, you waive any amount in excess of $10,000 and may not bring a separate action for more.
- 4. You have 10 days from receipt of this Notice of Claim to request a jury trial. A request for jury trial must be in writing and filed with the Clerk along with payment of the fee ($) required to transfer the case to the plenary (PL) docket. Your failure to do so waives your right to trial by jury.
